Returning members are asked to indicate any changes in their information by highlighting them. If you are NEW or just want a change, please provide a picture of yourself in the form of a jpeg sent to maxine.forward@gmail.com OR ask to have a picture taken at a meeting for inclusion in the Yearbook.

Members are asked to participate in at least one club committee. Check one or more committees to join.

	AWARDS members discover and select local gardens for recognition of horticultural excellence in both residential and commercial categories. They present the awards at a ceremony each year.
	CIVIC BEAUTIFICATION members maintain the Veterans' Garden at Stratham Hill Park and the American Independence Museum gardens. At Christmastime the Exeter Historical Society is decorated.
	COMMUNICATIONS members are responsible for content on the club Website and Facebook. They work on public relations through publicity and coordinating with outside groups such as the Seed Bank.
	DESIGN members come up with creative design workshops that members can participate in. They conduct the workshop and provide the necessities to make it fun and successful.
	ENVIRONMENT & CONSERVATION members display information on current and conservation issues at each meeting. They publicize the annual Beautification Mini-Grants and select worthy recipients.
	HORTICULTURE members present information at each meeting about all things hort through presentations, workshops and displays.
	HOSPITALITY members bring refreshments and centerpieces for meetings and help set the room up. They also host the Holiday and June luncheons.
	MEMBERSHIP welcomes members and guests to the meetings. Member information is maintained, the Yearbook is produced and dues are collected. A bit of sunshine for those in need is also provided.
	PROGRAMS members research, select and schedule speakers for the meetings as well as coordinate meets with other garden clubs.
	WAYS & MEANS members develop and implement fundraising projects to support the club's budget with activities amongst club members via the Promise Tree and those including the local community.

Membership dues are $25.00; $12.50 after Jan. 1. Please make your check payable to EAGC.
